 Any replacement sheet containing such amendments must be referred to under item 1 and annexed to this report.

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT

International application No.
PCT/US02/32756V. Reasoned statement under Rule 66.2(a)(ii) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement*1. STATEMENT

Novelty (N)	Claims 1-31	YES
	Claims NONE	NO
Inventive Step (IS)	Claims NONE	YES
	Claims 1-31	NO
Industrial Applicability (IA)	Claims 1-31	YES
	Claims NONE	NO

2. CITATIONS AND EXPLANATIONS

Claims 1-31 lack an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over U.S. Patent 5,835,087 to Herz in view of U.S. Patent 6,219,839 to Sampsell.

Regarding claims 1-31, U.S. Patent 5,835,087 to Herz discloses a system in which a user search profile is used by a news clipping service that retrieves articles from online news sources, the user's profile is utilized to compute how likely a user would be interested to read a given article, once calculations are preformed for each article, a list of identified articles is presented to the user, a user may then retrieve the generated list of articles and select an article they wish to view, the list is sorted according to how similar the article is to the user's search profile (column 57, line 45-column 5, line 56).

U.S. Patent 5,835,087 to Herz fails to disclose video and multimedia program content, and the scheduling or availability data for the content.

U.S. Patent 6,219,839 to Sampsell discloses an electronic resource guide in figure 7 which displays a schedule for a number of data services received over a cable modem and available on a PC 54, these streams may be video services, or the grid may have spaces for PC applications, a user may then select a service to be displayed on a monitor (column 4, lines 56-63, column 5, lines 40-63, column 6, lines 21-57).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of invention to modify the profiling and retrieval system of Herz to include the multimedia downloads of Sampsell thus enabling a user to learn more about a news story or sporting event by viewing multimedia video.
